

Camp Director:

Lauralyn Kofford

Lauralyn Kofford is a well-known choreographer, teacher, competition director, and adjudicator. Lauralyn was awarded a dance scholarship to Brigham Young University where she was a member of the acclaimed “Cougarette” Dance Team.

Lauralyn graduated from BYU with a Bachelor’s of Science degree in Dance Education and a Minor in Health and Fitness. She taught high school for 12 years serving as the dance department chair, dance company director, and drill team coach.

Lauralyn has choreographed numerous award winning routines over the years and continues to work in the choreography industry. Her choreography includes events such as the 2002 Winter Olympic Opening and Closing ceremonies, Utah’s annual 4th of July “Stadium Of Fire” show, the “Miss Rodeo America” pageant, various commercial choreography, Bowl-Game halftime shows, and many national high school championship routines.

Lauralyn has been the event coordinator for Dance America, directing Dance America’s Summer Slam Dance Camps, and Rap It Up Hip Hop Workshops held in Utah and Idaho. Lauralyn is also the co-director for the “Miss Dance/Drill Utah Pageant” and the “Utah Studio Solo Championship”. She has been a certified state and national adjudicator for over 20 years and has judged for companies across the United States and Japan.

Lauralyn has a true passion for dance and knows that through dance, many amazing opportunities are available.
